

JOHN WOOD

John Wood has been a part of the Australian entertainment industry for over 40 years and has earned a long list of credits for varied roles on stage and screen.

His TV career was launched in 1976, playing “Sugar Renfrey” in the ABCTV Production of POWER WITHOUT GLORY, for which he won his first Logie as Best Supporting Actor. In the 1980’s he went on to star in the hit drama, RAFFERTY’S RULES as Magistrate “Michael Rafferty; which consolidated him as the well know and admired television actor he has become.,

From 1994 and for the next 12 years, he played the role of “Tom Croydon” in BLUE HEELERS, one of Australia’s highest ever rating TV drama’s. It culminated in John winning the prestigious Gold Logie in 2006, after 10 consecutive nominations as most popular person on Australian Television. Subsequently John has appeared in a number of shows including TRUE STORIES, IT’S A DATE, PAPER GIANTS, MISS FISCHERS MURDER MYSTERIES, OFFSPRING and THE CUT

His more recent television role is as the “Patrick Tyneman ”, the baddie everybody loves to hate, in ABC’s THE DOCTOR BLAKE MYSTERIES.

CMC TALENT PTY LTD

His stage career has included everything from Shakespeare to Williamson and a few Musicals in between, winning a number of Best Actor awards along the way. Highlights have included THE TWELFTH NIGHT opposite Geoffrey Rush, directed by Neil Armfield and playing Jock in THE CLUB for almost every state theatre company over 15 years. In 2017 John participated in a national tour of BAKERSFIELD MIST with his BLUE HEELERS castmate Julie Nihill and has just concluded a National Tour of the show SENIOR MOMENTS with Max Gillies.

CMC TALENT PTY LTD